BYM, R. PARRISH Three months. . Rates of Advertising.

(Hinch, or 10 lines of type, constitutes 1 square 8,00 19,00 13,00 14,00 16,00 32.00 64.00 3,00 4,50 7,00 10,00 X 12,00 X There are 24 squares in each column. One column, 1 year 'Quarter " 1 year. 45 00

Announcements.—Announcing the name of person for a County office, $5; State office $10; Pederal office $15. Invariably in advance. The above Terms and Rates will b Relivious, Marriage, Birth and Death Notices solicited, and will be willingly inserted russ or charge. Obitaaries will be charged

GEMS OF POETRY.

Hope, Faith and Love. Hope is like a hareball trambling from its birth Love is like a rose, the joy of all the earth; Eaith is like a lily lifted high and white, Love is a lovely rose, the world's delight; Hareballs and sweet lilies show a thornless rowth. But the rose with all its thorns excels them

Christina G. Rossetti. Love.

I think that love is like a play,
Where tears and smiles are blended;
Or like a faithless April day,
Whose shine with shower is ended;
Like Col abrook pays ment, rather rough
Like trade, exposed to losses;
And like a Highland plaid, all stuff,
And very full of crosses.—Pracel. Renson.

Reason.

I would make

Reason my guide, but she should sometimes a

Partially by the way-side, while I traced

The mazes or the pleasant wilderness

Around me. She would be my counseler,

Ast not my tyrant, For the spirit needs

Impulses from a deeper source than hers,

And there are motions in the mind of man

That she must look upon with awe.—Bryant. Hope,

Can wisdom lend, with all her heavenly power. The pledge of joy's anti-ipated hour?
Ah, no! she dimly sees the face of man.
Her dim horizon bounded to a span;
Or, she hold an image to the view.
"Tis nature painted too severely true,
With thee, sweet Hope, resides the heavenly That yours remotest rapture on the sight.-

Beyond. Yet if, as holiest men have deemed, there be A land of souls beyond that sable shore. To shame the doctrine of the Sadducee And sophists madly vain of dubious lore; How sweet it were in concert to adore With those who made our mortal labors light? To hear each voice we f-ared to hear no more! Behold each mighty shade revealed to sight, The Bactrian, Samian, sage, and all who taught the right.—Byron.

To Browning. There is delight in singing, the' none hear Besides the singer; and there is delight In praising, though the praiser sit alone And see the praised far off him, far above. Shakspeare is not-our poet, but the world's, Therefore on him on speech! and brief for thee, Browning! Since Chaucer was alive and hale, No man bath walks along our roads with Se active, so inquiring an eye, or tongue or step So varied in discourse. But Parmer climes Give brighter plumage, stronger wing; the live brighter plumage, stronger wing; the breeze
Of Alpins hights thou prayest with borne on Beyond Sorrento and Amalfi where The siren waits thee, singing song for song.
Watter Science Landor,

A Prayer. Great God! I ask Thee for no meaner pelf,
Than that I may not disappoint myself.
That in my actions I may soar as high
As I can now discorn with this clear eye;
And next in value what Thy kindness londs,
That I may greatly disappoint my friends, How'er they think or hope that it might be,
They may not dream how Thou'st distinguished me: That my weak hand may equal my firm faith, And my life practice more than my tougu-

That my low conduct may not show, Nor my relenting lines, That I Thy purpose did not know, Or overrated Thy designs. The Proxy Saint. Bach for himself must do his Master's work,
Or at his peril leave it all undone:
Witness the fate of one who sought to shirk
The sanctuary's service, yet would shun
The penalty. A man of ear hiy aims ("e rung the apologue), whose pious spouse
Would oft remind him of the church'g claims, Still answered thus: "Go thou and pay our

For thee and me!" Now, when at Peter's gate.
The twain together had arrived at last, The twain together had arrived at last,
He let the woman in: then to her mate.
Shutting the door "Thou hast a'ready passed
By proxy," said the saint—"Just in the way That then on earth wast went to last and

J. O. Saxe. HUMORS OF THE DAY. Improving time - Mending

eighteen carro's.

Step on an orange peel if you wish to make a quick step. The favorite dish of Gratz and Greely-Lettuce alone

A singular fact-to-day will be yesterday to-morrow. They don't say hogs in Indiana;

"crude bacon" is the term. A student defines flirtation to "attention without intention." The first thing we take in life is milk, the last thing is our bier. Some men are worth nothing, and others are worthless.

wrote his best articles was-Vege- Heaven, he gasped, 'Great God.'

resemble? A rude-he-beggar. (Can and again this master of effect lowed bimself to be surrounded. this beet.) "The word 'impossible' is the mother tongue of I ttle souls," said Lord Why is it called "the sea of litera-

Because new books are out-truth-and so it was.

It is said that a lawyer's acquaint-

Mrs. Partington says she gets up brother who is a bachelor.

conflagration. An enterprising Connecticut mi k man thinks of growing cocoanuts instead of cows. The dead are never ill. Consequently all the diseases may be classified as affections of the living,

Why was Greeley's appearance in the Cincinnati Convention an agricultural development?-It was a the judges, looking them full in the turn-up of very rare species.

A German lately married says: "Id vas youst so easy as a needle cood valk out mit a camel's eye as to get der behindt vord mit a voo- The presiding judge ended the scene places-two from the region of the mans."

The Morristown Herald is in receipt of a perfumed note asking, "Why does not Mr. Byron, who used is the privilege of hoops to surround health, and has never suffered any "Thank your honor; may you live weary pilgrims lie?" We give it up, to write such nice, sweet poetry, the loveliest of human things, among inconvenience from her metallic long, and may I have the making of but experience has taught us that keep so quiet of late?"

the loveliest of human things, among inconvenience from her metallic long, and may I have the making of but experience has taught us that your fires hereafter!"

BOLIVAR BULLETIN.

BOLIVAR, HARDEMAN COUNTY, TENNESSEE, JULY 5, 1872.

How the World Will End. cture of Prof. Fiske before the American Geo-graphical Society.]

Planets are constantly integrating

lifferent materials which they encounter in their progress through pace, and it has been estimated The most important is the authorithat the earth adds to itself nearly zation of one cent postal cards for answered as follows: one hundred and fifty billions correspondence or for printed circuof such meteeric particles every lars, similar to those which were inpacity of two thousands yards of year. Secondly, it has been proved troduced in Great Britain two years one, and the other lest you should that every planet must be slowly ago, and which are now in use in all me. I do not see what good it would losing a part of its molar motion of European countries. The . House rotation. The effect of tidal waves, provided in the bill for cards with a which are caused by the gravitation of liquid toward other planetary ate changed this to an open card. as I would a rabbit or turkey. I am bodies, is to retard diurnal rotation; and, in fact, the terrestrial day is of the card was left to the Postmaslengthened by reason of the friction | ter-General, who prefers the open of the tides, and it is destined in the card, and will order that kind only use? A buffalo would make better remote future to give about 480 to be manufactured. The face of hours between sunrise and sun set, the card will bear a one-cent stamp, The earth is also losing molecular and will be provided with lines for the firmness which will take and remotion by radiation. That some address, and the back will be rated tain salt. At any rate it would not terrestrial heat is lost without com- for the letter. The price of the card do for a long sea voyage. pensation-and very slowly, of and stamp will be only one cent.course - can hardly be doubted, and It will probably be three or four or the state of things thus ultimate- weeks before they will be ready for ly to be produced we may find a par- sale, as the plates for printing are ple are not in the habit of barbeeu- zona, and the Pueblez tribes of Inallel in the present condition of the yet to be prepared. The postage on ing anything that is human now. dians are said to be members of the moon. That appears to afford an circulars, newspapers, and other As to your hide, it is not worth ta- Catholic Church. example of the universal death transient printed matter, which un- king off, bling little better than a which, in an inconceivably distant der the old law was two cents for two-year old calf. future, awaits the entire solar sys- every four ounces or less, is now one tem. If, along with the dissipation cent for two ounces or less. Small I do not like to stand in the way of invested in banking, loaned out at of the molar and molecular motions, circulars, which formerly cost two anything hurtful. I am under the interest, or used in real estate spec- the planets are also losing angular cents to mail, can now be sent for impression that you might hurt me. velocity, this loss of motion will ul- one cent-an important reduction ces. Invested in a cotton factory, this loss of motion will inwith the sun. Of two facts which largely to advertise to their business. bear upon the subject, one (familiar The change is now in force, the law take a tree or a barn about my dihear read? Did I hear it distinctly, laying aside all personal preoccupation of Energy and I will acknowledge that served retardation of Enck's comet | First Assistant Postmaster General | word, and I will acknowledge that by the resistance of the medium refused to-day to recognize the law, if I had been in the same place, you about to try for misdemeanor, are ion. Hitherto success has not tablishments of this character would hitherto been mentioned, is that all been told at the post office that his hitherto been mentioned, is that all been told at the post office that his through which it moves. The oth- however, when an attorney laid the harged with—with what?

Having delivered these words in a Having delivered these words in a learn that the army of Marshal Battoo manifest to require recapitulation manifest to require recapitulative delivered the planets are nearer the sun than the planets are nearer the planets are nearer the sun than the planets are nearer the sun than the planets are nearer the planets are nearer the Bode's law, the variations being claimed the right to suspend the opmost conspicuous, as might be ex- eration of the law until it could be pected in the case of Neptune, It promulgated to the post masters man in a hundred marries the man and, assuming the profoundest solemnity of manner, answered his own

We have hitherto prevented the enelemnity of manner, answered his own

We have hitherto prevented the enelemnity of manner, answered his own

In a radius of less than the lemnity of notice that the lemnity of manner, answered his own

In a radius of less than the lemnity of motion to be discouraged. It wenty miles, already since the war, discrepancy is such as might have less than the lemnity of motion to be discouraged. It wenty miles, already since the war, discrepancy is such as might have less than the lemnity of manner, answered his own.

bodies rushing through them must of the who'e into a nebula.

market has been opened for the sur- sistant force. This loss of tangen- were characterized by a rain fall far plus of the country, giving employ- tial momentum must bring all the less than the general average all over as marriage. Yet nothing is entere! twenty were $10,000 and over, and ment to merchants. Three of the planets into the sun. As the plan- the civilized world, and by unusual into half so thoughtlessly. largest of these factories have been et slowly draws near the sun, its elevations of temperature, due to a built and furnished since the war. _ lost tangential momentum is re- d minished evaporation from the placed, and somewhat more than re- ground. This spring has been her own hair dressed very plainly. Randall, was built in 1867—not a placed, by the added velocity due to marked by copious rains in most house near it at that time, now a the increased gravitative force exer- parts of the land-surface of the globe, neat little village of three hundred ted by the sun at the shorter dis- so far as heard from. The eastern inhabitants. These were all built tance. At the last the planet must states, especially, those which sufand furnished by stock companies. strike the sun with tremendous fered from lack of rain in 1870 and force. The heat generated by the 1871, even more than most parts of earth and the sun alone in such a the Northwest, have had an abundcollision would suffice to produce a ance of pluvial blessing within the temperature of nearly 5,000,000 de- last two weeks. The same is true of grees centigrade. Of course disin- the southern part of our state and tegration would immediately follow, Iowa, where many wells are now full and the next stage is the dissipation for the first time in a score of Singular Costumes of Scandinavians. An Edingburg paper says: The down freely in the shape of snow, in peculiar dress and antiquated ap- many portions of Europe, and the dark green and salmon color, garnet pearance of a considerable number spring was a very backward one in and rose pink, and blue and light of Scandinavian emigrants, who all the cereal-producing climes. To shade of pink. as old as I am, and has not seen as landed at Granton from the steam- this we may add that the earthquakes A Cincinnati man is searching much of the precical operation of ship Scotia, attracted considerable and tornadoes have been unusually through the West for a runaway wife the system of punishment which he attention from all who witnessed frequent, with attendant volcanie and $10,000 in bonds which she took desires to abolish. When I lived in their disembarkation. The party cruptions, and we have a great mass consisted of one hundred and three of meteorological fact which places or cut up other antics, we used to dults and a number of children, tie him up and give him a real good the majority being from the north-thrashing; and he always cleared the majority being from the north-thrashing; and he always cleared ern interior and more mountainous important points,—most important, regulated families, "when a man regulated families, and he always cleared to the first half of 1872 in marked containing the first half of 18 right out, and we never saw any- parts of Norway. The emigrants, as they bear directly on the general and his wife have quarreled, and thing more of him. It's the best of both sexes, were tall and well- welfare of humanity. The most ob- each considers the other at fault, way of getting rid of the rogues that ever was tried, and without expense to the State." Mr. Corwin, who never to the State." Mr. Corwin, who never to the State. The consideration of these facts is, that towards a reconciliation?" "The familiar along the northern seacost per familiar a er failed to carry his point by a joke, of Scotland. The dress of the wo- before the movements in the atmosif the argument was against him, men consists of skirts of strong fab- phere could be intelligently watched, rie, gathered into a band placed still less predicted, the law of gene-Speaker, I have often been puzzled round the body under the armpits, ral averages was reasoned out and to account for the vast emigration and suspended from the shoulders applied to meteorological conditions. from Connecticut to the West, but by braces. Their arms and shoul- The average temperature or rain-fall the gentleman last up has explained ders are only protected from the at any particular point, ascertained it to my satisfaction." Corwin's bill weather by a loose "bodg" of white by observations of a series of years, passed by an overwhelming majority. calico. The skirts reach only to the is found to hold good for a subse knee, and black open-work stock- quent series; hence, if one particular ings, with low shoes turned up and | year presents a meteorological excess pointed at the toes, and a head-dress another year will be deficient, so as consisting of a little shawl twisted to restore the mean and keep up the year ending June 30th, 1871, was into a turban, complete the costume. general average. It is true that we 262,735,341 pounds, which yielded, The men wear long boots, trowsers cannot, as yet, tell in advance when when manufactured, a tax of $33, seated and kneed with leather, and these compensations will occur; but 587,907. The production of States the waists continved up to the arm- we are none the less certain that they was as follows: Alabams, 152,742 pits, jackets ornamented with but- belong to the established order of pounds; Arizona, 101; Arkansas, tons in front, but so short that they nature. The atmospheric conditions, 594,886; California, 63,809; Colorado, scarcely cover the shoulder-blades, thus far, point to the year 1872 as their dear little heads over impracti- litical strifes he was engaged in, but These emigrants are principally the unusual dryness of 1870 and manner of many of their Eastern sis. met on both fields, and in a book farmers, and their destinations are 1871, and we are, therefore, justified ters. Some of them operate upon that should be in every house. Mrs. Wisconsin, Minnesota, and other in expecting that, while the present their sagacious judgment, while Haskell is a fit biographer of her parts of the lake district. Although summer will be spasmodically bot, others rely upon the advice of male brave and brilliant husband." their dress and that of their families with perhaps a couple of months in friends who "know what is going on."

in many respects it is far more sen- be followed by a wet autumn, some- of $10,000, another counts her gains Mississippi, 61,012; Missouri, 13, sible and less grotesque than the what similar to that of 1866, with at $30,000, while another fair one is good antidote to poisoning by phos-320,483; Mon'ana, 600; Nebraska, costumes which might have been its attendant physical prostrations, spoken of among her friends as hav- phorus. The two substances form a 5,988; Nevada, 25; New Hampshire, seen this week by spectators of the and possible damage to the matured ing "realized quite a fortune." This compound in the stomach resem-155,334; New Jersey, 40,871; New company proceeding to Her Majes- but unharvested crops in many parts is certainly profitable, if not better thing spermaceti, and this can readi-Mexico, 8,587; New York, 2,349,798; ty's drawing-room at Buckingham of the civilized world. 18,741,973; Oregon, 3,857; Pennsyl- that the "peculiar dress and antiquaduring a storm, she expressed con-The best thing out—A dangerous gate this New World, if we, their offpersecuted. But, may it please your possible. This object he affected by worships, permit me to inquire once surrendering himself to the enemy, worships, permit me to inquire once surrendering himself to the enemy, ace gates were thrown open would leaving the Empress to get along as ington, 1,682; West Virginia, 2,046. have excited both the wonder and leaving the Empress to get along as ington, 1,682; West Virginia, 2,046. more, for what are these men about leaving the Empress to get along as to be tried? This paper says: For she could, -- Philadelphia Ledger. commiseration of the Scandanavian know, I kill two birds with one and bitterness. She controverts the sweet oil, the whites of eggs and emigrants.

> gregational Ministry at Park street, | tendance." locality a few months after passing ference, at the age of thirty, fifty-two the United States. The brethren, of that they cannot climb out by the down her throat. During the last years ago. He has been elected to whom nearly a hundred were pres. ladder of reason. Women have as five years seven needles have been all the General Conferences from ent, regarded the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and ly fell to an inadequate price, involving the latter of the latter of the movement as one many heart-breaks as headaches, and the latter of the which can result in no good, but with as little serious results. from which much harm is to be An elderly maiden lady, hearing

> > ter.

line of a recent effusion "How many this sinful world for a better land. there are a good many.

The New Postal Bill.

This bill became a law just before the session closed, making some changes in existing postal regula- Court of Pennsylvania, when a young lations which are of general interest.

there have been five cotton factories been caused by a slow diminution of is now operative, and everybody is to disfigure their hands with black built and furnished, running over the angular velocities of the planets. entitled to claim its benefits post- net mittens. five hundred looms and spindles to Another fact, that the interplanetary masters being expected to know its supply—giving employment to over spaces are filled with matter, and provisions as well as other people.

> months. As with rain, so with temperature, the two being, in fact, closely connected. The water came such bad weather, to which the doc-The topic before the Boston Con- and dispensed with his further at- benefit to trade, for as they changed other things together.

for the first time that matches are made in heaven, declared that she A gushing poet asks in the first didn't care a straw how soon she left

Answer to a Challenge. The eccentric H. H. Breckinridge, one of the Judges of the Supreme man, was challenged to a fight a duel by an English officer, whom he

"I have two objections to this du-el matter—the one lest I should hurt be to put a ball through your body. I can make no use of you when you as I would a rabbit or turkey. I am In conference committee the style no cannibal, to eat the flesh of men. Why, then, shoot down a human creature, of whom I could make no meat; for, though your flesh might be young and tender, yet it wants

> "You might make a good barbecue, it is true, being of the nature of a raccoon or opossum; but peo- Menomonees, the Papagoes of Ari-

"So much for you. As for myself, This being the case, I think it the If you meant to try your pistols, might have bit me."

LADIES' COLUMN.

Kate Field's lecture on Dickens gives satisfaction in English audien-

Statistics show that not one wo-

Punch says it is very natural for man to feel girlish when he makes his maiden speech. A recently published British pam-The weather of 1872 presents, thus phlet asserts that Queen Victoria has > hoarded $35,000,000. Neither death nor life is as serious

The Princess of Wales has appear-in the brass-founding trade.

There is a girl in Minnesota, only two boys runs a farm of 200 acres. missionary women in other places. She put $500 in a St. Paul band last The Harpers are about publishing a biography of Prof. Morse, from the the electric telegraph. Worth's favorite combination of colors in costumes this season is -especially the bonds.

"Madam," said a husband to his which will spring up in the best said the wife, putting up her mouth for a kiss, which was given with an ty Progress there is a very highly

Two young girls at a boarding school, devotedly attached to one another, finding that at the close of the term they were to be separated, concluded to take poison and die together rather than to live apart. It was accordingly done, but discovered by the teacher, powerful antidotes administered, and the girls lived. Each accused the other of treachery, and after a dreadful quarrel they separated the most bitter and dead-

the year that shall compensate for cable political theories, after the also of the many eminent men he 15,785,339; Massachuse ts, 7,312,885; excited some little astonishment, yet | which but little rain will fall, it will | One lady has raked in the snug sum in every way, than strutting upon ly be removed from the system. A physician visiting a sick lady platforms in outer clothing and Laudanum or other anodyne is shortened hair, dispensing dreary sometimes taken by mistake or othlatitudes to as dreary audiences. | erwise in excess. Swallow strong stone." "Doctor," replied the lady, opinion that the rapid and senseless strong coffee antagonize a larger "you are too good a shot for me," changes of French fashions were a number of poisons than perhaps all monthly by a decree of court, quan-Men never fall so deeply in love tities of unsold merchandise encumbered the manufacturers' and mer. is promptly discovered, the best chants' establishments, and sudden- plan is to get it out of the stomach ng many retail tradesmen in ruin.

that the bread was bad, exclaimed: ach begin to be ejected. "What! you complain of bread that is made from flour? What do you New Orleans is distressed for waand shoes."

NUMBER 48.

present year in favor of open com-Bishop Pierce, of Georgia, is in his sixty-second year, and yet his father is able to preach two long ser-

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.

one missionary in Japan.

against him.

sand Catholies.

The American Baptists have but

Rev. Dr. Huston, of Baltimore.

has been acquitted by the Conference, of the charges preferred

The estimated value of the property of the Established Church of

The Pilot says that in the city of Boston alone there are nearly sixty priests and over one hundred thou-

Eighteen ministers of the Baptist Church have declared during the England is more than $820,000.

mons every Sabbath. The total membership of the Orthodox Quakers at present in the United States is 57,505, being an in-crease of 715 in twenty years, Hartford has furnished eleven Bishops to the Episcopal Church from clergymen who have been rectors of Hartford churches, and Boston has furnished nine. The American Missionary Society as received offers of the services of two hundred colored men for mis-in Africa. The American Bible Society has made a grant of Bibles and Testaments to the Southern Methodist Church to aid in its work among the sionary work among their kindred

The Pottawatomics, the Kansas, the Osages, the Kontenares, the

The Greek Church has rules for architecture as well as ritual. Its church edifices must always be built in the form of a cross or ship, and extend from east to west, with the altar situated at the eastern extrem-

Tillotson very justly says that hame is a great restraint upon sinners at first; but that soon falls off, and when they have once lost their nnocence, their modesty is not likey to be long troublesome to them.

The Presbyterians have two missionaries, three teachers, and one Chinese assistant, and three Chinese colporteurs at work among the Chirese in California. Theservices are well attended and orderly.

The number of trustees of Methodiss churches, 94,080; of stewards of societies, 80,640; of class leaders, 47,559; of Sunday-school Superintendents, 17,555; of Sunday-school cachers and officers other than Superintendents, 176,424. The past year has been peculiarly marked by magnificent gifts. The amount is computed at $8,495,990, of which two were $1,000,000, and over twenty-three were $100,000 and over, eleven were $25,000 and over, thirty-three were $1,000 and over. The Women's Foreign Missionary

ed very often in public recently, with | Society of the Presbyterian Church reports eleven missionary women Two thousand women or girls are and eight Bible women in India, employed in Birmingham, England, seven missionary women in China, several Bible women at Droomiah, Persia, three missionary women and 18 years of age, who by berself and nine native teachers in Syria, and Nearly all the Manchester (Eng.,)

Dissenting ministers, orthodox and heterodox, lately met at a soirce, at which Dr. McKerrow, an influential pen of Mrs. Frances Gerry Fairfield. United Presbyterian pastor, made a t will give a complete history of speech, urging that their denominations, including Unitarians, should act in concert in Sunday-school matters, and once a year hold a communion service in common.

Three hundred acres of land on Shelter Island, opposite Greenport, Long Island, have been negotiated for by the leading New York Methodists, to be devoted to camp-meeting purposes, and for the erection of cheap summer residences for ministers of the denomination who wish young wife, in a little altercation to spend portions of the summer at the sea-shore. It is expected accommodations will be prepared for 20,000 people by August or September next.

> Mrs. Haskell's Life of Her Husband. In the last issue of the Dyer coun-complimentary notice of the "Life and Times of Gen. Haskell," by his widow, the Librarian of the State Library. It is said that she proposes to obtain one thousand subscribers before publishing the book, and in aid of the scheme the Progress says this number ought to be obtained in West Tennessee alone. "Gen. Haskell," it adds, "was the pride of our section, and his name before his death was a household word. The work is a complete chronicle of West Tennessee, from the Florida war until Haskell's death, California ladies speculate in min- giving an account not only of his ing stocks in place of bothering own action in the military and po-

Antidotes for Poison.

Commercial oil of turpentine is a

George Sand is publishing frag- coffee or the whites of several eggs If landanum, or any other poison not burning the throat, is taken and in a tumbler of water, and drinking A parsimonious sea captain an- it down at once; almost before it is swering the complaints of his men down the whole contents of the stom-

When David slew Goliath with a think of the Apostles? They are sling, the latter fell stone dead, and 'shew bread' made from old boots was quite astonished, as such a thing had never entered his head before.

VOL. VI. PATRICK HENRY IN COURT. His Brilliant Defence of the Indicted Preachers.

[From the Atlantic for July.] The intolerance of the established church Mr. Parton illustrates by the case of three Baptist preachers who were arraigned as "disturbers of the king upon himself all the responsipeace" before magistrates who were determined to convict them. Pa given of his perfermance—it was the French more than a speech-on that occabeing dressed in the country manner, contest was nothing more than an his entrance excited no remark. act of despair. The honor of the ar-When the prosecutor had finished my being safe, I exercised my right of the basis laid down in them a cothis brief opening, the new-come: took the indictment, and glancing at be hoisted. It was impossible that cessfully operated. it with an expression of puzzled in- the immolation of 60,000 men could credulity, began to speak in the tone save France. I obeyed a cruel and of a man who has just heard some- inexorable necessity. My heart was thing too astonishing for belief. May it please your worships, I quil."

think I heard read by the presecutor, The as I entered the house, the paper I now hold in my hand. If I have the 31st of August, two days previrightly understood, the King's attor- ously, the Emperor had addressed a ney has framed an indictment for the purpose of arraigning and punishing by imprisonment these three His Majesty had forgotten when he inoffensive persons before the bar of penned the above letter. The procnitude—as disturbers of the peace. ing movements of the war not havor was it a mistake of my own? Did tion, to give the command of the to invest profitably. I hear an expression of a crime, that army to the Marshals who were es-halting, broken manner, as if his zaine has reformed itself under the tion. mind was staggering under the walls of Metz, and that of Marshal weight of a monstrous idea, he low- McMahon was but but slightly enered his voice to its deepest bass, gaged yesterday. There is, therequestion: "Preaching the gospel of my from penetrating to the capital, the Son of God!" mind intent; for all this was executed as a Kean or a Siddons would have performed it on the Stage-eye, to produce the utmost possibility of God, men of courage; and if there felt, he waved the indictment three contempt will do them justice. Soltimes round his head, as though still diers! be worthy of your eminent the charge.

"Then he raised his hands and does his duty!" eyes to heaven, and, in a tone of pathetic energy wholly in lescribable, exclaimed 'Great God?' "At this point, such was the pow-

What is Greeley's age? Cabb-age, and the unuatural alliance of eccle- and Ducrot, it appears that these The gold in Greeley's character is when liberty, liberty of conscience, the blockaded army, either to the

"This was followed by another cover Paris; but Napoleon wasted What vegetable does Greely most | burst of feeling from the specta ors; | time in useless movements and alplunged into he tide of his dis-

there are periods in the history of mum the chances of his restoration man when corruption and depravity to the throne of France. It at the have so debased the human charac- same time withdraws one disturbing ter, that man sinks under the weight | element from the arena of French of the oppressor's hand-becomes politics, and increases the chances Where ought we to find the milk his service, his abject slave. He licks of the stability of the Republic. The of human kindness? In the pale of the hand that smites him. He bows Royalists just now are "nowhere," in passive obedience to the mandates and the Orleanists have found it pro-. A beautiful sory teller once as of the despot; and, in this state of dent to "hide their dimisished serted that his voice was still for the servility, he receives his fetters of heads," for a while at all events. perpetual bondage. But, may it But what shall be thought of the n please your worships, such a day has consistency of the Emperor, who, ance with a client is apt to be a brief passed. From that period when our first of all, abdicated his powers, fathers left the land of their nativity then took it upon himself to surrenfor these American wilds, from the der his army, and then on giving up moment they placed their feet upon his sword to the King of Prussia, de every merning at the shrill carrion the American continent, from that clared that he could not enter into moment despotism was crushed, the political negotiations, because he Brigham Young does not look out fetters of darkness were broken, and rad left the political direction to the for his relations. He has a half- Heaven decreed that man should be Regency in Paris? The truth is free, free to worship God according | that the Imperial cause was so com-All time belongs to us, for all time to the Bible. In vain were all their pletely lost that he did not dare to sufferings and bloodshed to subju- return to Paris; he had no object in spring, must still be oppressed and to be out of the difficulty as soon as South Carolina, 34,805; Tennessee, sat shivering in their carriages on persecuted. But, may it please your possible. This object he affected by 21,465,452; Texas, 59,706; Vermont, the Mall for an hour before the pal-> preaching the gospel of the Saviour to Adam's fallen race! "Again he paused. For the third face, exclaimed with the most impressive effect. What law have they violated?' The whole assembly was now painfully moved and excited. extracted from her body, in different 1832 to the present session. by saying, 'Sheriff, discharge these

A cynical old bachelor says that it The lady has always enjoyed good have attended to my fires so well."

Napoleon's Excuses. The Ex-Emperor Napolean recenttransmitted a letter to the Generals of the French army who are inculpated in the surrender at Sedan, seeking to vindicate them, and, possibly, to stop further inquiry by tatrick Henry rodefifty miles to defend | far as the English translation of them |

"I am responsible for Sedan. The army had fought heroically against sovereign to cause the white fing to ton factory can be erected and suc-

The surrender of Sedan took place on the 2d of September, 1870, but on proplamation to the soldiers of the French army, which it would seem these men, whom your worships are pecially pointed out by public opinand all France is rising to repel the

"Then he paused. Every eye was invaders. Under these grave circumnow riveted upon him, and every stances, and the Empress worthily representing me in Paris, I have pre ferred the part of Soldier to that of Sovereign. I shall spare no effort to save voice, attitude, gesture, all in accord our country; she contains still, thank effect. Amid a silence that could be are cowards, martial law and public amazed, still unable to comprehend reputation. God will not abandon our country, provided every one

Contrasting these two documents it would appear that at the close of August Napoleon abdicated his military authority in favor of Bazaine, er of his delivery, the audience re- McMahon and Wimpfen, and his imlieved their feelings by a burst of perial authority in favor of the Emsighs and tears. The orator contin- press, "preferring the part of a soldier to that of sovere gn," so that he "May it please your worships, in a was but the shadow of either an Emday like this, when truth is about to peror or a General. That being the burst her fetters, when mankind are case, what authority had he to cause bont to be aroused to claim their the white flag to be hoisted? From natural and inalienable rights, when the evidence given before the Comthe yoke of oppression that has mission on Capitulation, now sitting searched the wilderness of America, at Versailles, by Generals Wimpfen siastical and civil power are about to two officers, at all events, thought it be dissevered-at such a period, still possible to open a passage for is about to wake from her slumber- East, by way of Carignan and Montings and inquire into the reason of medy, or to the West by Mezieres. such charges as I find exhibited here | Gen. Wimpfen, in fact, made an atto-day in this indictment'-Here oc- tempt to drive the Bavarians across carred another of his appalling the Meuse, and was continuing the pauses, during which he cast pierc- movement begun by McMahon, when ing looks at the judges and at the he perceived the white flag flying on three clargymen arraigned. Then the ramparts of Sedan. At that moresuming he thrilled every hearer by ment the army under his orders his favorite device of repetition: 'If numbered more than 80,000 availa-I am not deceived - according to the | ble men! The original march to Secontents of the paper I now hold in dan was ordered by the Emperor, my hand-these men are accused of against the advice of McMahon, and preaching the gospel of the Son of in spite of the protestations of Ba-Godl' He waived the document zaine, who knew that his force was three times round his head as though | not strong enough to encounter the still lost in wonder, and then, with 230,000 Germans under King Wil-The table on which Mr. Greeley | the same electric attitude of appeal to | liam. McMahon's advice was to fall back with the utmost rapidity and

> His recent letter only makes his feebleness and incapacity the more "May it please your worships, apparent, and reduces to a minito be tried? This paper says: For she could .-- Philadelphia Ledger.

> > A married lady in Rock Island, stomach and short ribs, one from the leg, near the knee, and recently as he was about leaving a hotel one was taken from the left temple. "here's a dollar for you because you

SOUTHERN MANUFACTORIES.

What It Cost to Build a Cotton Fac-Here is a simple statement of facts derived from an authortic source, being statistics furnished by Eastern manufacturers, upon the basis of which many mills are now being bility for that affair. This letter is erected in the South: The cost of couched in the following terms, so a complete cotton factory, with a cathem, and the following account is can represent the exact meaning of 4-4 standard sheetings is $40,000. To operate such a mill will require an additional capital of $5,000 .-The total cost of running such an He entered the courthouse while an enemy who was disposing of establishment is $1,234; the total rethe prosecuting attorney was read- forces quite as numerous. After ceipts $1500 per week; leaving the ing the indictment. He was a stran- fourteen thousand men had been net profit $266 per week, $13,800 ger to most of the spectators, and, killed or wounded, I saw that the per year, which is thirty per cent on the investment. These are bona fide statistics, entirely reliable, and upon

A cotton factory would give em-ployment to three or four hundred workmen, thus attracting to the city broken, but my conscience was tran- a valuable class of population, creating demand for houses, land lots as residences, enhancing the value of real estate, and proving an advantage and blessing to the city in many other ways. Thirty per cent per annum cannot be made upon money ulations, except in very rare instanthis court for a crime of great mag- lamation said: "Soldiers, the open- however, the return of this high per-May it please the court, what did I ing been fortunate, I decided, while centum is certain, year in and year out. We submit these facts to gen-

It is not necessary for us to refer WHAT MANUFACTURIES DO. With West Point, Ga., as a center and within a radius of less than one thousand operatives and a sup-that, consequently, all planetary The Weather of 1872, Past and to Come. Towns have sprung up in the meet with resistance and lose moneighborhood of these factories, giv- mentum, proves that immense mo- far, a marked contrast to that of the ing employment to mechanics; a mentum will be eaten up by the re- two years preceding. Those years Rock Mills, now owned by W. E.

Anecdote of Tom Corwin. The death of Tom Corwin, which gave us all sorrow, served to revive many good stories concerning him. When quite a young man he was elected a member of the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, and early in the session he brought in a bill for the destruction of the whippingpost. He made an earnest speech in favor of the measure, to which an elderly member replied as follows: "Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not Connecticut, if a fellow stole a horse only made the brief reply: "Mr.

grown in the country during the 800; Connecticut, 8,328,798; Dela and felt hats. ware, 250; Florida, 157,405; Georgia, 288,596; Illinois, 5,219,274; Indiana, 9,325,392; Iowa, 71,792; Kansas, 33,-241; Kentucky, 105,305,869; Louisiana, 15,541; Maine, 15; Maryland, Michigan, 5,385; Minnesota, 8,247; North Carolina, 11,150,087; Ohio, Palace, and there can be little doubt

"Here waiter," said a gentleman,

The total quantity of tobacco

Rev. Peter Akers, D. D., delegate Illinois, had been in the habit of pla- to the Methodist General Conference time he slowly waved the indictment | cing needles in her mouth. Now now in session has passed his eightyround his head; and then, turning to and then she swallowed one, and it second year. He entered the itinewas sure to appear in some strange rant ministry in the Kentucky Con-amendment to the Constitution of